

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I rely on weather and traffic information from satellite radio as I drive around the country. This is very important public safety information that interstate travelers cannot obtain from over-the-air broadcasters that do not provide this information 24 hours a day.

Please allow satellite radio operators to continue to provide this public safety information to those of us who drive around the country.

Best regards

Mark E. Mazo